DIRECTION FOR Q NOS 1-5 Read the passage carefully and select the correct options in the questions given.

A thief once hired a room at an inn and stayed there with the intentions of stealing some things. The next day when he was thinking of what to do next, he looked out of the window and saw the owner of the inn sitting in the courtyard. Looking closely, he realised that the owner was wearing an expensive new coat, which the thief decided would look good on himself. To give fruit to his plan, the thief went and sat next to the innkeeper. Striking up a conversation, he got talking about things which were of no interest to either of the two.

During the conversation, to the innkeeper's astonishment, he yawned and then howled like a wolf. The innkeeper was curious and asked him as to why did he do that? The thief said he had no control over his yawning and if he yawned three times, he actually turned into a wolf. He begged the innkeeper not to leave him, as he was frightened. Moreover, with that he yawned again and let out another howl. The innkeeper turned pale and got up to go, but the thief caught hold of his coat and begged him to stay. Even as he pleaded, he yawned again. The terrified innkeeper wriggled out of the coat to which the thief was tightly holding on, ran into the inn, and locked himself in. The thief calmly put on the coat and walked away.
