Once, an ant went to a river to drink water. While bending into the river, it lost its balance and fell into the river. It was being carried away by the fast flowing water of the river. He was in great danger of drowning and dying. A dove, sitting on a nearby tree, saw the ant's danger and wanted to help it. The dove dropped a leaf into the water. The ant climbed onto this leaf, and came to the bank safely. From then, the ant and the dove became friends. One hot afternoon, the dove was sleeping on the tree. Then a bird hunter came there and saw the dove sleeping. He wanted to shoot the dove with his gun. He took a careful aim and was ready to shoot the dove. The ant saw that his friend was in danger and quickly went to the hunter and bit him sharply on the hunter's leg. The hunter missed his aim, and the loud noise of the gun awakened the dove from her sleep. She saw the danger and flew swiftly away to safety. Thus, the ant repaid the dove for having saved its life.
