1. Below given is a letter with four blanks. Fill those blanks with the options provided in P, Q, R, S to make it a sensible one.
- Dear Steve
It's been a while since we wrote, so I thought I'd drop you a line to bring you up to date with what's been happening here.
I suppose the most important thing is that Jane's job is more secure than we thought. _____ I _____, but we just found out that she has a permanent contract of sorts. Obviously this is great, as it means we can relax a little. I still don't have what I really want work wise, but it will happen soon. You have to stay positive, don't you?
My parents are both fine, _____ II _____.
For us, it's great to be so close to family again, an extra sense of comfort and security. We see my sister quite often as she's in London, although we're not that bothered about going into the city.
So, what about you these days? _____ III _____
Since I've been having so much trouble getting a job I understand your reluctance to change. There's nothing worse than filling in endless application forms, _____ IV _____.
Yours Lovingly John
- P: At the beginning of the year, when she got the job, we thought it might only be for one semester
Q: Are you still stuck in that old job?
R: With no idea of what it will lead to

Direction: For Q9-10: Read the given passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

In Bengal, many poor farmers had been forced and compelled to take up indigo cultivation when the British settlers were given the right to purchase and cultivate land in India. Many whites, therefore, either acquired land or advanced loan to poor farmers and pressured them to forsake the farming of food grains and other cash crops for indigo cultivation. Within a few years, most of the fertile lands had undergone forcible indigo cultivation, resulting in a famine situation in Bengal. When the farmers declined to cultivate indigo, they were tortured, jailed and even killed.

9. The poor farmers in Bengal took up indigo cultivation because:
(A) This was the only crop that would grow in Bengal.
