In a jungle, on a fig tree, lived a flock of geese and a wise old gander.

One day, the gander saw a tiny creeper at the bottom of the tree. It looked pretty but the gander was not happy to see it. He feared that the creeper would grow and soon reach the top of the tree. Then, it could help a person to climb up and lay a trap for them. He warned the geese to cut it while it was small.

The geese did not heed his advice and forgot it. Meanwhile, the creeper grew bigger and reached the top of the tree.

One day, while the geese had gone out for food, a hunter came and lay a trap for them.

On returning, the geese were caught. Tearfully, the geese apologised to the wise old gander and asked him to help. The kind gander forgave them. He told them to lie still and pretend to be dead when the hunter came in the morning. He would have no use for dead geese and free them from the trap. Then they could all fly away.

The geese followed his advice and were able to escape....Alive.
