Vienna is the capital of Austria in Central Europe. It is a city of immense historical and cultural heritage. Vienna's history goes back to the 1st century AD when the Romans founded the military camp Vindobona. In 1137 AD, the city of Vienna was first mentioned in documents and around 1157 AD, the Dukes of Babenberg chose it as their residence. From 1282 AD onwards, the Habsburgs reigned there for more than 6 centuries. In 1918, the Habsburg Empire collapsed after the end of the First World War and Vienna became the capital of the Republic of Austria. Since 1967, it has been of the three United Nation's cities (in addition to New York and Geneva) and in 1995 it became one of the capitals of the European Union.
