

OCTOBER 2012

U/ID 14807/UCQE

---

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 50 words.

1. What is meant by sociology of medicine?
2. Define health.
3. Indicate any two psychological factors that adversely affect health.
4. Clarify sickness.
5. Give the meaning of occupational health.
6. What is Tuberculosis?
7. What is the role expectation of a doctor?
8. What are the functions of hospital?
9. Clarify health education.
10. List out the psychological health problems of the aged.

PART B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 250 words.

11. (a) Delineate the objectives of medical sociology.
Or
(b) Briefly explain the historical development of medical sociology in India.
12. (a) Explain Talcott Parsons' concept of sick role.
Or
(b) Explain illness as social deviance.
13. (a) Write a short note on social epidemiology.
Or
(b) Elucidate the causes of diabetes.
14. (a) Comment on the health care services provided in government hospitals.
Or
(b) What for medical social services are carried out?

15. (a) Elaborate the physical health problems of the aged.

Or

- (b) What do you suggest to prevent infection of HIV/AIDS?

PART C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 500 words.

16. (a) Explain the social perspectives of health and health care.

Or

- (b) Discuss the present status of medical sociology.

17. (a) Narrate the impact of psycho-physiological factors on health.

Or

- (b) Elucidate Parsons' role theory in hospital settings.

18. (a) Bringout the relationship between occupation and disease.

Or

(b) Explain the causes of heart diseases.

19. (a) Analyse the changing trend in the status and role of physicians in the society.

Or

(b) Explain hospital as a social system.

20. (a) Explain the importance of health education in India.

Or

(b) Elucidate the salient aspects of health policy in India.

---