

MAY 2012

U/ID 14807/UCQE

---

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 50 words.

1. Define medical sociology.
2. Clarify health care.
3. Indicate any two social factors that adversely affect health.
4. Distinguish between disease and illness.
5. Give the essence of the role theory.
6. What is meant by social epidemiology?
7. What is diabetes?
8. Point out any one reason for the rising cost of hospitalization.
9. Give the meaning of sex education.
10. Clarify social gerontology.

PART B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 250 words.

11. (a) Bring out the relationship between medicine and sociology.

Or

- (b) Differentiate sociology of medicine from sociology in medicine.

12. (a) Discuss the sociological view of illness.

Or

- (b) Elucidate social model of health.

13. (a) Discuss the need for understanding the social causation of diseases.

Or

- (b) Write the causes of obesity.

14. (a) Enumerate the functions of hospitals.

Or

- (b) Indicate the unique features of medical profession.

15. (a) Write a short note on social gerontology.

Or

- (b) How does HIV infection occur?

PART C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 500 words.

16. (a) Compare the historical development of medical sociology in the west and in India.

Or

- (b) Examine the scope and principles of medical sociology.

17. (a) Explain the sociological perspective on ethical issues in medical and health care system.

Or

- (b) Discuss the functional approach to sick – role.

18. (a) Trace the socio – cultural roots of disease.

Or

- (b) Explain the need and purpose of conducting social epidemiological studies.

19. (a) Describe the nature of Pediatric care services provided in hospitals.

Or

- (b) Discuss the importance of healthy interpersonal relations among health professionals in hospital context.

20. (a) Examine the impact of population growth on health status.

Or

(b) Elucidate Health Policies on nutrition in India.

---