

OCTOBER 2011

U/ID 14807/UCQE

---

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 50 words.

1. Define Medical Sociology.
2. State any two objectives of Medical Sociology.
3. Differentiate disease from illness.
4. Define health.
5. Clarify social epidemiology.
6. Mention any four occupational diseases.
7. Point out the difference between social service and medical social service.
8. Sketch out the administrative structure of a hospital.
9. What is sex education?
10. What does social gerontology deal with?

PART B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 250 words.

11. (a) Distinguish between sociology of medicine and sociology in medicine.

Or

- (b) Explain how medicine and sociology contribute to each other.

12. (a) Elucidate sick-role.

Or

- (b) Delineate the role of sociologists in promoting health.

13. (a) How will you prevent the common occupational diseases?

Or

- (b) Write about the causes and control of Tuberculosis.

14. (a) Discuss hospital as a social organisation.

Or

- (b) Elaborate the medical social services in hospital context.

15. (a) Clarify social gerontology.

Or

- (b) Write a note on Health policy.

PART C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 500 words.

16. (a) Examine the current trends in medical sociology in Indian context.

Or

- (b) Explain the principles and scope of medical sociology.

17. (a) Elucidate Parsons' role theory in the context of interaction situation in hospitals.

Or

- (b) Explain the social and psychological factors that are detrimental to health.

18. (a) Write the causes and control of obesity and diabetes.

Or

- (b) Discuss the need for understanding social epidemiology in Indian context.

19. (a) Analyse the changing conditions of the status and role of physicians in society.

Or

- (b) Elaborate the functions of a hospital.

20. (a) Critically examine India's health policy.

Or

- (b) Is sex education needed in India? Substantiate your view points.

---