Time : Three hours   Maximum : 100 marks

SECTION A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 50 words.

1.   Define health.

2.   Give the meaning of community.

3.   What is social epidemiology?

4.   Mention any two components of epidemiology.

5.   List out the types of rehabilitation.

6.   Give the expansion of AIDS.

7.   Give the meaning of social etiology.

8.   Mention any three medicine systems of medicine.

9.   What are the types of hospitals in India?

10. Write down the reasons for mental depression.

SECTION B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 250 words.

11. (a) 'Community as central concept in sociology'–
    Explain.

    Or

    (b) Describe the scope of community health.

12. (a) Evaluate the role of family in health.

    Or

    (b) Elucidate the importance of family in socialization.

13. (a) Give a short note on social epidemiology.

    Or

    (b) Enumerate the types of rehabilitation.

14. (a) Write a detailed note on folk medicine.

    Or

    (b) Discuss the place of magic in primitive society.

15. (a) Narrate the evolution of health institutions.

Or

(b) List out the types of hospitals in India.

SECTION C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

Each answer should not exceed 500 words.

16. (a) Critically evaluate the evolution of social medicine in India.

Or

(b) Bring out the importance of family in health care.

17. (a) Analyse the components of epidemiology.

Or

(b) Briefly discuss the influences of environment on health.

18. (a) Write a detailed note on attitudes an beliefs associated with diseases.

Or

(b) Distinguish the difference between primitive and modern medicine.

19. (a) Present a brief account of the importance of preventive medicine.

Or

(b) Briefly describe the theories of primitive medicine.

20. (a) Point out the importance of nursing profession.

Or

(b) Criticize the primary health care in India.

————————————