Section A (Reading Skill)

- 1. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.
- Our earth has a fine layer of soil at the surface. All plants grow in this soil only. Under the soil there are rocks of various kinds. Nature takes millions of years to form an inch of the soil in thickness. But sometimes a single heavy shower can wash it off. Such a thing doesn't happen in places where we have forests or lots of trees. The roots of trees hold the soil together and protect it from being washed off.
- ii) We have trees not only for their usefulness, but also for their beauty. They refresh the eyes and bring peace to mind. That is why our ancient Rishis were attracted to the forests. They lived in their forest homes or Ashrams in the company of nature. It was in these ashrams that they taught their pupils. When Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore started a school, he also chose a place full of trees. He called it 'Shantiniketan' or the 'Home of peace'.

- iii) There was a time when our hills, mountains and even plains were covered with huge forests. As the population grew, trees were cut down to meet the demand for fuel and timber. Thus our wonderful forests came to be destroyed.Now we don't have enough trees to give us firewood even. So people are forced to burn cattle dung which ought to be saved for use as manure. Cattle dung is very necessary to maintain the fertility of soil. Chemical fertilizers alone can't help. In many areas where only chemical fertilizers are used, the crop yields have started falling.
- iv) There is another grave danger. Now we don't have enough trees to treat all the carbon dioxide that is being produced in our homes, factories and by our autos. The air remains polluted and it can give us a number of serious diseases.
- v) Trees are man's best friends. They are God's greatest gift to man. They are invaluable wealth of a nation. It is our sacred duty to protect them and look after them well. For every tree that is cut down, we must plant at least two new trees and take care of them. If we don't care for trees, they too will stop caring for us. And then imagine what will happen!

- Much before medical science discovered it, Reader's Digest came out with the precription laughter is the best medicine. Newspapers and magazines which regularly run humour column are, therefore, doing their bit to keep the readers in good health. Reading light articles, whether they be satirical, comic or just humorous, relieves the tedium of work-a-day world. Some piece may even tickle one's grey matter.
- ii) It is said that if you laugh for ten minutes, you will be in a better position to put up with pain for two hours. According to us researchers, laughter is a good antidote to stress that tones up the system. Facial laugh, muscles instruct the brain to 'feel good' regardless of how you feel.

- iii) According to a French doctor, laughter deepens, breathing, improves blood circulation, speeds up the process of tissue healing and stabilises many body functions. In short, it acts as a power drug with no side effects. Researchers state that laughter stimulates production of beta endomorphins, natural painkillers in the body and improves digestion. Those who laugh are less prone to digestive disorders and ulcers.
- iv) Some people in France have made it a career. You can hire a 'jovialist' who cracks jokes and laughs and promises to make you dissolve your worries in helpless laughter.
- v) A word a caution. Although laughing is a good exercise for toning up the facial muscles, laughing at others expense, particularly at their disabilities is in bad taste and is to be avoided. Secondly, laughing with food in the mouth is dangerous as food stuff can get into the windpipe and may choke the respiratory system.
- vi) Eating, anyway, is a serious business not to be trifled with, by any jocular diversion. Laughter comes best when it is free of encumbrances, whether it is constricting food or the need to humour the boss.
